2. The PSI has offered to the Agency four slots in a new seminar series entitled "Western Europe and the Revival of Germany". The aim of this course is to trace trends in Western Europe -- political, economic, psychological, and military -- with special emphasis on the role of the West German Federal Republic. Lecturers include high-level officers of State, NSA, and Defense. The Offices in the Agency participating in the seminar are ONE, OGD, OGI, and TR/PI.

3. On Tuesday, 30 April 1953, 62 new Agency persons attended the Indoctrination Program. Included in this group were eight intelligence representatives for the U. S. Air Force. These included six Intelligence Staff Officers and two Intelligence Analysts.

4. The next CIA Presentations Program will be held on 13 May from 1100 hours to 1200 hours in the Orientations Room, 117 Central Building. The subject concerned will be "Presentation of Department of Defense Directives Pertaining to Logistical Support of CIA Covert Operations in Peacetime." This program was requested by [redacted] of the Support Staff of the Office of Logistics.
